Celebrate the marriage of José and Gloria, the couple from the hereafter! Join the bride and groom on a multicultural adventure as they travel the world and meet a host of happy skeletons from nations near and far!

Casa Calaveras is a great way to introduce your kids to Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead). You'll stroll among life-sized happy skeleton figures that are artistically rendered in eye-popping colors. This is a sweet, heart-filled tale of two lovebirds.
